SECURITY

OUR SERVICES

SECURITY

HOTEL SECURITY

With a highly trained, fully licensed team of security professionals, Royal Falcon Security can provide you with both manned guarding security and comprehensive hotel security solutions for safety and security of your clients and customers. Hotels premises, surroundings and car parks are easy targets for criminals. They will be looking for any opportunity, whether it is stealing guest's personal belongings or trespassing on to the hotel property. Royal Falcon Security officers are fully skilled to deal with such Issues. We also ensure that all security officers deployed on your site are fully equipped, committed, responsible, reliable and highly competent to deal with hotel security responsibilities.

BANK SECURITY

Banks are probably the riskiest and most sensitive businesses that need 24/7 comprehensive security and surveillance. Royal Falcon personnel assigned to banks are adequately trained for the banking environment and will ensure that all individuals entering the bank are scanned and have a legitimate reason for being within the banking premises.

Exchange Houses

Our clients have entrusted us to provide highly proactive security. We have trained and fully equipped our security personnel to match these standards and deliver beyond our client's expectations for all types of banking institutions. Our security guards will be stationed at highly visible places within the banking premises which lowers the likelihood of crime

HOSPITAL SECURITY SERVICES

Hospitals exist to provide care to those who are ill or injured. This means that many people who reside in hospitals are vulnerable to exploitation, theft of their belongings, or even violence. Hospitals also typically maintain large inventories of drugs, some of which may have significant street value. Hospital employees, likewise, are also vulnerable as targets of violence for both patients and family members alike. A hospital security officer is charged with maintaining the peace in a hospital and working to safeguard the people and items within its walls

GENERAL SECURITY SERVICES

We offer our services to Government Entities, Private Enterprises, Educational Institutions, Retail and Shopping Malls, Leisure and Amusement Parks, Industrial and Construction projects. Warehouses, Homes and Residential Properties, Labour Camps, et al. We have the highest standards of integrity and excellence at every level. To us, integrity and professionalism are of utmost importance. As an organization committed to excellence, we maintain the highest industry standards for security officer's training, honour, loyalty, and character. All of our security officers are highly trained and are subject to constant site supervision and random inspections to effectively meet the demands of the market.

EVENT SECURITY & BODYGUARD SERVICES

Security is an essential part of any event and can mean the difference between success and failure for your special occasion. Ensuring that you hire qualified, professional event security staff is crucial and this is where we can help you. At Royal Falcon Security all staffs are highly trained and we can supply security guards and personnel to your exact specifications. For added peace of mind, we can also supply CP (Close Protection) personnel for occasions that demand extra protection and security management. All our clients for any event are assigned a senior security supervisor that would ensure that all their needs are enacted promptly and to your satisfaction. We at Royal Falcon Security are a company that bases itself on honesty, integrity, and impartiality. We have strategically positioned ourselves to be a security company that can cater to all of your security needs
